BRITISH TAEKWONDO COUNCIL

Safeguarding – Protecting Children Policies and Procedures

Version	Author	Date	Review Date
1	K Beddows	February 2014	February 2017
2	D Sutherill	February 2017	February 2020
3	D Sutherill	December 2019	December 2022
4	D Sutherill	October 2022	October 2025

JUNIOR CODE OF CONDUCT

The Fair Play Policy is aimed and worded particularly for children and young people involved in Taekwondo.

It is the policy of the British Taekwondo Council to ensure that all children and young people, promote fair play at all times, they are encouraged to be 'good sports' and to co-operate with and respect their instructor, higher grades, fellow students, and club officials at all times. The aim is for all young students to enjoy the art, improve their skills and have fun in a safe and friendly environment.

All junior members are asked to abide by the following rules at all times:

- Co-operate fully, respecting all requests and decisions made by the instructor, helpers, officials and administrators
- Be on time for training sessions and competitions
- Children and young people must control their tempers and avoid behaviour which may inconvenience or upset others
- Treat fellow students with respect at all times
- Be considerate to others and work together especially with those younger than you
- Be good sports, take success as an achievement and failure as a challenge to improve
- Do not participate in any club activity whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Members shall not promote, give or sell any drugs to another member whilst participating on the club premises or participating in any club activity
- Respect all property/equipment belonging to the club or any club member
- Do not leave sessions without permission of the instructor
- Be responsible for caring for your own equipment, clothing and property
- No jewellery or unsuitable clothing or footwear should be worn during training

- Ensure mobile phones are turned off and stored in a safe place
- Report any concerns to club welfare officer or instructor or complete the Junior feedback card